LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Read report of County Supervisor.

—Read the advertisement of J. L. Bryson in this issue.

—Read the advertisement of M. W. Doty & Co. It will interest you.

—Don't wait until you need your gun before having it repaired. Send it to W. J. Elliott at once.

—The party of gentlemen who have been at Catawba Falls on a fishing expedition, returned on Thursday night.

—The Charlotte Observer has lately come out in a new form. It is larger, being an eight page paper now and has improved in every way.

—A game of baseball was played between Winstonsboro and Blackstock on Friday afternoon. The score was as follows: Winstonsboro, 22; Blackstock, 9.

—We call especial attention to the advertisement of the South Carolina College. This institution offers splendid opportunities to young men and young ladies.

—Mr. J. L. Beaty advertises Heinz's pickling vinegar. Heinz's pickles are famous, and this is the kind of vinegar he uses in making them. Mr. Beaty also has Heinz's pickles for sale. Read his advertisement.

—Among our new advertisements this morning is the Newberry College. This institution offers three good courses cheap. They have a new science hall with working laboratory, a good library, and every department well equipped.

—We have been requested to announce that Mr. Henry L. Elliott has catalogues of the South Carolina College for distribution and any one in Fairfield County desiring one of these catalogues can get it by applying to Mr. Elliott.

—The lightning Saturday afternoon did considerable damage to the Winstonsboro-Ridgeway telephone line at Rock-ton. The telephone wires near the depot at the same place were struck and the building set on fire. Very little damage was done, however.

—What has become of the electric lights and water works? They ought not to be allowed to rest. We hope that the town council will continue to agitate the matter. With good public roads and electric lights and water at the county seat, Fairfield will be on the road towards substantial progress.

—Almost all of the young men in town have ordered bicycle suits, so we hear, and we shall expect to see most of our wheelmen in knickerbockers soon. We hear that some who have bought the suits are afraid to venture out in the knickerbockers until the town is a little more accustomed to the suits, so they wait until night to don the knickerbockers and ride under cover of darkness.

—A most delightful germ was held in the armory on Thursday night, in which about fifteen couples participated. The weather was cool enough to make dancing extremely pleasant without being in the least fatiguing. As the dance was gotten up "on the spur of the moment" the local band furnished music, and although it was not the very best, the dancers made the best of it and had a very pleasant time. The germ was led by Mr. Lawrence Porter with Miss Annie Davis, and dancing was continued until after midnight.

—Incontinence of water during sleep is stopped immediately by Dr. Detch-on's Anti Diuretic. Cures children and adults alike. Price $1. Sold by W. E. Aiken, Druggist, Winstonsboro, S. C.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

During the storm Saturday afternoon, which by the way was probably the severest electrical disturbance of the season, a small two-room house, near the A. R. P. Church, was struck by lightning. The entire cable end and a great deal of the weather boarding on one side was knocked off. The building was not set on fire, owing to the very heavy rain that was falling at the time. The house is occupied by a family of negroes, but fortunately for them they were all absent from home when the lightning got in its work, and consequently there were no fatalities.

Death of an Old Soldier.

Mr. W. B. Murray died on Friday night at his home near Winstonsboro after an illness of about a year's duration. Mr. Murray was a native of Ireland, but came to this country rather early in life and engaged in the occupation of planting.

At the beginning of the war Mr. Murray enlisted in Rios's battalion and showed his allegiance to the county of his adoption by rendering gallant service as a soldier until the surrender. At the time of his death Mr. Murray was between sixty-six and sixty-eight years old. His remains were interred at Union church on Saturday evening.

DEATH OF MR. J. M. SADDLER.

Mr. J. Milton Saddle died at his mother's home in Lancaster on Tuesday morning, July 13th. Mr. Saddle was born in Lancaster February 1, 1839. When a young man he clerked in Columbia, and from there came to Winstonsboro, where he lived for several years until the beginning of the war. In 1861 he joined the "Greys" of Lancaster, then he was transferred to Company G, Sixth South Carolina Regiment. Mr. Saddle served throughout the war, and was an excellent soldier. He made many friends when he lived in Winstonsboro and will be well remembered by a number of our citizens.

THE BICYCLE CONTEST CLOSED.

Miss Ellison Wins.
The bicycle contest closed on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. A great deal of interest was manifested and the vote is quite a compliment to the young ladies. The News and Herald regrets that it cannot give a bicycle to each of them. The total vote cast was 12,468, of which Miss Annie Ellison received 5,965, and Miss Alice McMaster 5,197, making a close second. The votes were counted by Messrs. J. Q. Davis and W. G. Jordan, for whose labors services we extend our thanks. We desire also to thank Messrs. J. O. Boag and J. L. Beaty for the courtesy of exhibiting the wheel in their respective stores.

The following is the certificate of the committee showing vote in detail:

JAMES WYATT WYLIE.

Mr. James W. Wylie died at his home near White Oak on the 29th of June. He was only confined to his bed one week, although he had been in feeble health for over two years. He was in his fifty-third year. At the breaking out of the late war his three older brothers going into service left him, quite a youth, at home to take care of and support his widowed mother and little sisters and brothers. Though at the latter part of the war a call was made for old and young, he left his farm in the care of two small brothers and joined the famous Haskell battalion of field artillery; there he served several months, then he was transferred to the 15th S. C. Infantry, Col. J. B. Davis, to be with his brothers. There he remained until the surrender. After returning home he married and again began to farm, which occupation he followed up to his death.

Mr. Wylie was a quiet and peaceable man, a good citizen, and a successful farmer. He was liked by all who knew him. He leaves a wife, four brothers and three sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. One by one they are crossing over the river.

SOUTH CAROLINA COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.

There will be held at each county seat in the State on August 13th, under the direction of County Superintendents of Education, an entrance examination for students, male and female, who may wish to enter the South Carolina College.

This is done for the convenience of the students, to save time and expense, and above all to give opportunity to any applicants who may fail to pass any part of the examination to review such study during the month of September, and to try the examination at the college, September 28-29, when the usual entrance examinations are held.

This plan promises to be a great convenience to the patrons of the college, and a great aid to backward student, enabling them to take advantage really of two entrance examinations, with an interval to study up on any branch in which they may be deficient.

The applicants will be informed by the 26th of August how they have passed, and what they need to study further, and will be advised on all matters relative to their expected entrance into the college.

At the same time and places competitive examinations will be held for normal scholarships, two of which are awarded in each county of the State. These carry with them the remission of fees to the amount of $50.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

This is the way all druggists sell Groves' Tasteless Catarrh Remedy. It is simply iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter non-heating tonics. Price, 50c.

BLACKSTOCK BRIEFS.

As "Pinkerton" has already given us an account of the game of baseball between the Blackstock and Winstonsboro second nines in order to get those fine plays (which he called "beautiful") published, I will not say anything about that game. There was a game played here Tuesday afternoon between a portion of the first and second nines, which resulted in a great victory for the second nine.

We were visited on Monday afternoon by a splendid rain, which freshened up everything, especially crops and gardens.

The farmers of this section have begun to put the finishing touch to their cotton. When they get through there will be feasting—eating fruit and watermelons until fodder-pulling time comes.

There will be very little fruit this year, especially peaches; they have commenced to rot on the trees before ripening.

Mr. M. Hall, of Rock Hill, came down Tuesday to see his sister, who is sick at Mr. R. Craig's.

Miss Louis Mills has gone to Lewisville, Ga., on a visit to her father, Rev. J. S. Mills.

ANNUAL REUNION

Of the Confederate Veterans at Greenville. The following has been issued:

Charleston, July 15, 1937.

General Orders No. 29.

1. The annual reunion for 1937 of this division will be held at Greenville, S. C., commencing at 10 a. m. August 25th.

2. The low railroad rate of 1 cent per mile, which will be given from all points within the State, will allow a large attendance of delegates. All comrades of the division are earnestly invited to be present. Whether delegates or not, they have a right to be in the convention. Confederate veterans who have not yet joined the U. C. V. are cordially asked to join their former comrades in this grand reunion.

The division now has nearly one hundred camps, and this reunion is apt to be the largest ever held of ex-Confederates in this State.

The good people of Greenville are making every arrangement for the entertainment of the veterans, and we can be sure of the most hospitable and loving reception and care.

2. Each camp will appoint one young lady as sponsor, whose duties and place at the reunion will be designated in subsequent orders.

3. As soon as further details of the arrangements are fixed, they will be communicated to the division.

By command of Major General C. Irvine Walker.

Jas. G. Holmes, Adjutant General, Chief of Staff.

MOTHER! There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "MOTHER"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering step. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it, so assists her in the change-taking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward without dread, suffering or gloomy forebodings, to the hour when she experiences the joy of Motherhood. Its use insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. Don't be persuaded to use anything but

BLYTHEWOOD NEWS.

Picnics are numerous. There was one at Sand Field church on the 3rd inst., which was greatly enjoyed.

Blythewood was well represented, and the program rendered that day, though an "old one," was made an unusually attractive one—"matrimony."

Mr. J. H. McKean paid a flying visit home Monday. After walking the streets a while, he sought a more desirable occupation, "keeping late hours."

Mr. Jas. Gibon, after visiting his parents Sunday, returned on Monday to Charlotte.

Mr. S. C. Hood spent a few days here last week en route to Batesburg to take charge of a pump.

Mr. W. S. Starns is spending awhile with his sister here, Mrs. W. I. Povey.

Mrs. Eugenia Hogan, of Sumter, is visiting relatives near here.

Mr. T. N. Price is spending awhile in town.

Miss Fannie McLan is visiting friends at "Twenty Creek."

We have been visited with several refreshing showers recently, which was greatly needed.

I notice that the members of the "association" have other occupations now since "gnats" have made their appearance.

July 13, 1937. Taffy.

WOODWARD NEWS.

We had a fine rain Tuesday evening. Both corn and cotton are growing and putting out fruit. We notice that some cotton fields are infested with lice. As they are rather late coming we are in hopes they will not stay long or do much damage.

Mr. W. L. Reid has just painted his store. It adds very much to the looks of it. He intends to build an addition to it if he can get the right sort of an answer from a girl up the road.

Woodward now has three new stores and I hear some talk of a fourth to go up this fall—a brick one. We may have a lively stable also.

Mr. T. W. Price has bought a new 20-horse power Tezer engine. I understand he will run two grins this season instead of one. With a ginny and three or four good stores (all doing business at gold standard prices) we expect a big trade this winter and want to lay all the cotton in the country at tip top prices.

Mr. A. R. Nicholson spent his summer vacation in Chester last Thursday.

A few of our citizens are talking of taking advantage of the cheap rates to Tampa the 20th inst. Very few of us can scrape up the railroad fare.

The health of the community is generally good—in fact I know of no sickness at all. The coffin business seems to be a drug on the market.

Why would anyone want to vote for Irby for Senator? He was here six years, (though very few people knew it) and we heard less of him than of McLaurin in one month. The cry of combination of Gonzales, &c., seems to be made to hide another combination—the triumvirate. It is hoped Evans won't forget his scuttie illustration.

UPPER LONGTOWN NEWS.

The grove in front of the residence of Mr. S. S. Dixon presented quite a picturesque appearance on Tuesday evening, being the scene of a large gathering of the young people of the surrounding country to participate in a moonlight picnic. It was indeed a picnic well calculated to please even the most fastidious. Here and there could be seen the fair forms of the young ladies as they flitted hither and thither with their gallant admirers amidst the progress of some game, or again could be seen some couple, lost to all others, telling, we suppose, the "old, old story" that never grows old, while Luna from an almost cloudless sky looked down and seemed to cast a smile of approval upon the scene of gayety beneath. It was certainly a lovely scene, and one that looked more fairy-like than real. The amusements consisted of various games, chat, singing, etc. At eleven o'clock all were invited to the feast of good things prepared for the occasion. After the cravings of the inner-man had been amply satisfied and another hour or so pleasantly spent amidst parlor games, etc., the crowd dispersed.

Mrs. Weir and Miss Mozelle Wylie, of East Water, spent a day or two in Longtown as the guests of Mrs. J. C. Stewart, the sister of the former.

Miss Lottie Durham, who has been visiting relatives and friends at this place, has returned to Durham and Cadet Nicholas Bray, (of Binghamton College, N. C.) of the Flint Hill section, paid this section a flying visit on Saturday.

Miss Rosa Mellichamp leaves here to-morrow for Rabon's X-roads, where she will open school on Monday.

Mr. J. P. Jones left recently for Glenn Springs to recuperate.

One of Mr. Hargrave's triplets died at his home in Ridgeway on Saturday. The remains were brought to Longtown on Sunday and interred at the Presbyterian Church.

SAD DEATH AT BLYTHEWOOD.

There is always something sad and mournful in death, yet methinks the fell destroyer never placed his signet on human brow under circumstances more heartrending than those which surrounded the death of Mrs. M. M. Chikskales, whose spirit winged its flight to the God who gave it on July 13, 1937. She had lain on a bed of affliction more than eleven weeks, yet never murmuring, but always submissive to the will of God. She went to sleep as calmly and quietly as the evening star sinks to rest on its ocean pillow. She did not shrink from encountering alone the dark and chilling waves of Jordan, for she had drunk at Slossom's fountain and quaffed at the well of living water; and faith whispered she would.

"Land on that happy shore, Where billows never break and tempest never roar."

For some time she felt that her end was drawing near, and with a love and tenderness, too deep for utterance, she called her husband and children to her and gave them each a farewell message. She selected the hymns she wished sung and the scripture she wished read at her funeral. They buried her at the Baptist Church of her two little children, who were waiting to welcome her home. A large number of weeping relatives and friends followed her remains to their last resting place, and lovingly and tenderly laid her in the grave. Human wisdom could never have conceived that it was best for her to die, yet "the Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." God saw fit to transplant her from this world of gilded phantoms and fleeting dreams to a more congenial clime. Never again will we meet in this world, but still will not be forgotten. For "soft in the stilly night" and in the morning light sweet memories will come and life's music will ever breathe for us a minor chord of sadness since she is gone.

"I saw her when they laid her down Upon the silent bier."

And many heaved the sobbing sigh.

And she the bitter tear.

Low in the silent dust she sleeps, Free from all toil and strife, Till started from the dreamless rest, She wakes to endless life.

ELDER'S AND DEACONS' CONVENTION

At Lancaster, S. C., July 28th-30th, 1937.

By order of Bethel Presbytery there will be held in Lancaster, July 28th to 30th, an Elders' and Deacons' Convention.

Of the 31 ministers, 263 elders and 216 deacons entitled to sit in this convention only a few of each have been appointed to open the discussions by short addresses.

All others are urged to prepare to take part in the free discussions to follow the opening addresses.

Shall we succeed? Shall we make it a means of blessing to our elders, deacons and churches? Yes, if each one will decide, first, to go there; second, to pray for it; third, to enter earnestly into it. Brethren, it is your convention. Do all you can for it. Bring your Gospel Hymns 5 and 6, or, better, 1 to 6.

Let each one who intends to go, bring Rev. C. W. Humphrey, D. D., Lancaster, S. C., that suitable accommodations may be had for all.
